"I am very passionate about physics and I respect your support. The next five years in my life will be very exciting. Due to the support of donors like you, passionate students can spend more time concentrating on their love and not on finding money to buy books." —Brian Glover, University of Central Florida, SPS Scholarship Winner

In addition to physics I have another passion and some have found the two a strange combination...I have loved the American Sign Language since high school...combining my two passions merely means a focus on teaching physics to the Deaf...the combination is not so strange after all.
